José de Alencar CincBOOK

Til pertence à fase regionalista de José de Alencar, junto a obras como "O Gaúcho", "O Sertanejo" e "Tronco do Ipê".

O Livro, escrito em 1872, retrata os costumes, a linguagem e a vida rural da época, e segue os moldes românticos, abordando a inocência, o amor, a fragilidade, a idealização da natureza e a subjetividade.

Segredos antigos, desencontros amorosos e renúncias estão presentes neste destacado romance regionalista, em que Alencar documenta o cotidiano numa fazenda paulista do século XIX. Til é o apelido de Berta, a heroína capaz de imensos sacrifícios por um ideal.
